“ *To the family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Did you know the bible gives the hope of death not occurring on this earth anymore? At Revelation 21:4 it says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” If you would like to know more about this hope, talk to any Jehovah’s Witness that you reach. I will keep you in my prayers###imported-begin##Brenda Jones

“ Dear Hawthorne family, Please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Robert. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Mr. Robert. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Prayer is real and vital communication with Our Grand Creator, Jehovah. He has given Jesus "All authority in heaven and on earth. Jesus provides comforting words at John 5:28 & 29 "All those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out . . . and Revelation 21:3-5, God promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. (John 11:25) "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life". Psalm 34:1 "Our Grand Creator is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." These are not idle words of Jesus.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
