“ With Deepest Sympathy To The Ames Family: The people we love live on in our hearts. It takes a long tmes a long time to get used to the loss of someone we love. But it's important to remember that when people die they leave something very behind. They leave us memories of the things they said and did. And as long as we have theses memories the people we love will live on in our hearts and minds. Revelation 21:4 helps us to see that God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more.###imported-begin###Geneva McClendon###imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel during such distressing times. May the comfort of God help you during this difficult time. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1: 3, 4. Especially during this time we may feel alone and devastated, but always remember that, "This afflicted one called, and Jehovah himself heard. And out of all his distresses He saved him." Psalms34:6. The Bible holds out hope for our loved ones when it says "and I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Acts 24:15##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ Hey Uncle Bobby, I'm gonna miss you! I'm going to miss everything about you. I'm going to miss how funny you are, your laugh, your smile and especially all of the good lectures you have given me. Even though you aren't here on Earth with us anymore, I know you're in heaven, in a WAY better place, looking down on each and every one of us and I know that you're going to keep us all safe. RIP Uncle Bobby, gone but never forgotten. I'll see you soon, love you! Always and forever##imported-begin##Ciara Sidelko##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family of Robert Ames. I lived directly across the street from the Ames' home as a child and teenager. Bobby was the brother of our good friend Yolanda Ames. Bobby was like a big brother in my eyes because he would look out for me and my sisters. I felt compelled to share some words of encouragement with the family because I went through the same loss not even 6 1/2 years ago. Through God, prayer, and time you can and will survive to see brighter days. The tears and hopelessness that you have will begin to eventually turn into laughter and hopefulness. Always remember the good times you shared together because in the end those are the memories you hold close to your heart. To the sisters (Demery, Kim, and Yolanda) I know this is very hard for you right now but GOD is in control right at this moment; he will guide you through these turbulent waters. To his children; know that your father loved you with every ounce of his being. Hold on tight to your memories; use them as souvenirs of love that you shared with your Dad. God bless this family!##imported-begin##Daaimah (Rahman) Harmon##imported-end##
