“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Young family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Mrs. Heyward and Family,
My heart goes out to you. Losing a family member is always very difficult. However, let us take solace in Job 19:26
New International Version (NIV)
"And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God." We must remember that this life is only temporary, but that life in God lets us live eternally.
Sincerely,
