“ To Angie Riley Jackson and Family: Our prayers go out to you and your family we know the road will be tough and there will be plenty of sad days. Just take comfort in GOD's word which says "To be absent from the body is to be present with the lord" and know that Dad is in good hands, and you will see him again. If you needs us for anything, we're here for you.##imported-begin##Shawn and Toni Gayden (Gilyard)##imported-end##

“ Dear Corolyn (Carla) and family,

We were stunned to learn the news of Robert's sudden passing. We want you to know how much we care, and how much we will pray for all of you in your grieving. It's so difficult to lose the patriarch of the family, so many memories, so much history you have together. Our hearts go out to the grandchildren he enjoyed so much, who will miss their grandpa so much, it's so hard to explain to them. I will miss my birthday buddy, and his big smile, and sense of humor.

Have peace in your hearts knowing that you loved Robert while he was here on this earth, were such a loyal and caring wife, and realize the pride he had in his children and their accomplishments. Keep making him proud by the way you conduct your lives, living a legacy of commitment to family, and enjoying the love, humor and small joys that it brings.

*God bless,
Chris, Ken, Austin, Leah, Amber Jim and grandbabies##imported-begin##Chris Kole and Family##imported-end##*

“ Angela Riley-Jackson and Family

Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort tomorrow. Life is eternal, and love is immortal, and death is only a horizon; and a horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight.

Our hearts go out to you in your time of sorrow--your Barbour Magnet Middle School family.##imported-begin##Monique Ellison-Jenkins##imported-end##
