“ To Sis. Mary Taylor And Family,

I want you to know that you are all in my prayers. Sis. Taylor you know that I love you and the other day in your home you shared alot of things with me. You know that you are blessed that the Jesus. allowed you to spend all those years together. I know that you loved him but Jesus knew best. He did'nt leave you, just remember all the time that you spent together and his spirit will be with you always. You will still get your morning coffee. (smile) Sis. Taylor I am a woman of my word I will come see you on my off days in the morning. But if you need me call me anytime even if you just want to talk. The Homegoing Service was wonderful and I was glad that I could attend. I had to leave to go back to work. To the entire family Jesus will take care of you and always remember the memories that you shared with Bro. Taylor. Sis. Taylor and family read Psalms 121 and always call upon Jesus because he is waiting to hear from you. Take care of each other and Jesus will take care of you. My dad Pastor Joseph McLaughlin said you are in his prayers. God bless you all and keep you in his loving care. "Be Encouraged" and rember that I will keep you all in my prayers. Sis. Taylor I'll see you soon. (smile)##imported-begin##Rev. LaBrenda McLaughlin##imported-end##
