“ Dear Warren, i have loved you as you have loved me unconditionally all of our lives, i do not know how i will cope with you out of my life. I thank God that you are in a better place and with your dear "Sadie Mae" you could not be in better hands. Warreen, our lives were enriched to have you with us. Peace, Theresa##imported-begin##Theresa Williams##imported-end##

“ Here's to you my loving cousin. I will always remember you walking me home from school, trying to play tricks on us and trying scare us at Grandmother's and just loving me unconditionally. I know you are in a better place. Glad I was able to talk with you on Friday. You and memories of the good times with you in Bham and Detroit will always be on my mind and in my heart. R.I.P. “ It was such a joy to spend time with Warren Saturday. He has always seemed like a brother to me instead of a nephew. I will really miss him but the Lord and Sadie wanted him with them. I know he was at peace and is now in a better place. God Bless you Beverly and Joan. I will keep you in my prayers. Love, Aunt Brenda##imported-begin##Brenda Nixon##imported-end##

“ Warren,you've always been a joy in the lves of so many people. You will certainly be missed. Your wit and sense of humor brought laughter to so many of your friends and relatives. We are so happy that God gave us a chance to visit you on May 22. You inspired us in so many ways. The greatest joy came in knowing that you accepted Christ into your life! [Your Aunt Minnie. I'll always love you!]###imported-begin###Minnie C. Booker / May 26,2009 / AuntCKYT###imported-end###
