“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Family: Death of a loved one is always hard to bear. I just wanted you to know that others understand and share your pain, but especially does God know and feel your pain. We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22) Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without death, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28, 29). In time, may your hearts find comfort in what God has promised, for it will all shortly come true (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Dear Jackson family, I'm sorry for the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Ronald Cornelius. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This hope is held out to all mankind, including Mr. Ronald Cornelius. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.###imported-begin###Jackie Brezzell###imported-end##

“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.”

“ May the hope at 1 Corinthians 1:3 bring the Jackson family much comfort during this time. Jehovah God is the God of all comfort and he sees the difficulties and hard times we go through. He will help your family in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
