“ Thank you so much for welcoming me into your family with open arms. Thank you for your generosity and love. Thank you for raising your son to be a man of courage and honor like yourself. You are a wonderful, wonderful man. I will keep the promise I made you and always take care of your Ronnie. You fought a brave battle, never once complaining and I will always stand in amazement of your strength. I know you will be watching over us from Heaven. May God bless and keep you in his care until that day we meet again.

“ Ron and Family,

I am truly sorry for the loss that you have incured. It is always difficult to let go of a loved one, however knowing that your dad is in a much better place and not having to deal with the pain that he endured with is fight to stay with you. Just look forward to the day that we all can join him when we too rest in peace. May god bless you all during this difficult time.

“ Ron was such a nice person to work with. I remember when the gang of us would meet at the American Legion and we'd have such a great time. Ron always had a sense of humor and was so much fun to be around. He encouraged me to move on to better employment, and I'm thankful for that. I remember the lunch-time barbecues and company picnics with a smile. Ron will be sadly missed.##imported-begin##Sharon Sundquist##imported-end##

“ I worked with Ron for approx 10 years and found him to be a very loving, caring and hard worker. I have so many good memories and good conversations I had with Ron on the dock or in my Office. We had many knock down disagreements where work was concerned but beyond that we were able to remain good friends. My condolences and prayers goes out to the family. Yolanda hand in there, God knows just how much you can bear. May God bless each of Ron's family during this time of sorrow and may each loving memory comfort you and bring you peace during this time.
Peace and love always,
