“ *It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear.
Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.”

“ I am very sorry to hear about your loss. I offer my condolences to you and your family. I care about the things you are experiencing and most importantly Jehovah Gods cares for you. At 1Peter 5:7 God urges you to throw ALL your anxiety upon him. He also promises to resurrect our loved ones. I invite you to read John 5:28, 29. I hope you find this a source of comfort. Please feel free to contact me or any other Jehovah's Witnesses to learn more. You and your family are in my prayers.###imported-begin###Deyona###imported-end###

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Wilcox family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.###imported-begin###Ariel###imported-end###
