“ *Dear Mary M. and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I just learned of Roy's passing Friday evening by reading the Detroit News. I contact Aunts Charlotte and Lillian, who both thought I knew.
I wish I could have been there on behalf of my parents, who both saw you and your family an extention of our own.
Our family's prayer are with you now and always.
God be with you,

“ Mrs. Muldrow ,we at West Bloomfield feel that we just lost a family member. We pray that Allah gives you the comfort and the rest that you so much deserve and need. Mr. Roy was truly a friend in deed. It has been a pleasure knowing and being of service to you and your family while you were on this journey, I know that it was not easy. I also know that Allah was walking ahead of you.

“ Silvia, Roy, and the entire Muldrow family, may the memories of your father bring you peace. Silvia shared some of those memories with us and you can take comfort in knowing that you showed him love. You gave him his flowers while he could still smell them.###imported-begin###Rick and Tiffani Johnson###imported-end##

“ *My family and I extend our condolences to the entire Muldrow family. In this difficult time may you find a measure of comfort from the love and support of family and friends and also in God's promises of a resurrection of our loved ones and the time when "the enemy death will be brought to nothing" (John 5:28,29; 1Corinthians 15:26).
