“ My heart goes out to Ryan's family. He was a wonderful young man to be proud of.

He had another family when he worked at the Walgreens store on Jefferson and Mt Elliot. His nickname there was "Tank". I would refer to him as my other son and scold him if he was not behaving. He got laid off and I requested a transfer to warmer weather. We kept in touch when we could.

I will not forget your smile, the sound of your laughter or how you would sing to Luther playing on the CD player as I drove you home. Nor, will I forget the many meals, cigarettes and rides you bummed from me. You will live on in my heart with the many wonderful and funny memories I have of you.

I love you Ryan! Rest in Peace my "other child"
