“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ Dear Family: No matter how long our loved ones are with us, it is NEVER long enough! And, when we lose them to death, there are no words to describe the pain and anguish we feel. Death truly is mankind's worse enemy! (1Corinthians 15:26), and we are no match for this enemy (Job 14:12). But there is One who is and He has stated that if a man dies he can live again (Job 14:14,15) At Revelation 21:4 he promises that soon DEATH will be no more. All mourning, outcry and pain will be gone forever! Hopefully, being reminded of God's purpose to eliminate this terrible enemy, will help ease the pain in your hearts knowing that Jehovah God will not forget your dear loved one, Mrs. Johnnie Mae.(John 5:28,29) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Hopkins family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I know your hearts are heave now. It's so important to reflect on the happier memories you shared with Mrs. Hopkins. Look at photos and videos of her; it might be painful at first. But, those memories will help you to heal. "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". Psalms 55:22 Prayer to God is not an emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with the "God of all comfort", who will comfort us in all our tribulation". 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
