“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ *May the love of God and the grace of Jesus Christ be with you during this time of sorrow.
Believe in the promise of God.*

"And if I go and prepare a place for you. I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. John 14:3

“ Dear Cason family, Please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Addie B. The bible gives us a satisfying answer to what happens to us at the time of death. The scriptures plainly show that death is our enemy that will be destroyed by God (Please read 1Corinthians 15:26) May the God of Tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: No matter how old are loved ones live to be, we are never ready to say 'goodbye' to them. They have brought such richness to our lives. We have learned so much from them and have made many beautiful memories with them. It seems that they should go on living forever. It just doesn't seem fair that they should go and leave us behind, brokenhearted. Please don't dismay. Our Loving God is aware of your situation and he cares very much for you and your loved one, Mrs. Addie. (1 Peter 5:7). He promises to heal your broken hearts by restoring her to you soon by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29). Yes, he will soon swallow up death forever ! (Isaiah 25:8) and wipe all tears of pain, mourning, outcry from our eyes (Revelation 21:4) Mankind will then be able to live out his life the way God meant it to be “...even life forever more”. (Psalm 133:3). Mydeepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I’m writing because I’m so very sorry about your loss, Mrs. Addie B Carson. I know that this is very difficult time for the family. At this this time I know it’s very difficult for the family. I just wanted to leave you with something encouraging. Something that god says at Rev 21:4. There he promises that it will be no more death pain or anything to make us sad every again. May the god of tender mercy continue to be with you.##imported-begin##Kelynn Salley##imported-end##
