“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Miller family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear mother. Mrs. Adella. Although I didn't know her personally, I can still certainly relate to the loss of a mother for I, too, loss my mother some years ago. Nothing can be more devastating to us than the death of someone we love, especially a mother. They are so special and it is a challenge, indeed, to move on without them in our lives. But our Loving Creator has given us reason for hope...the sure hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. At John 5:28,29 he teaches us that 'the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves), including your mother, will hear his voice and come out'. At Revelation 21:4 our God promises that 'he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more'. Isaiah states that our Loving God will 'swallow up' DEATH forever! I realize that words may offer little comfort at this time, but hopefully in the days and weeks ahead you will consider God's promises to mankind regarding this 'enemy'...death! (1 Corinthians 15:26). For it means that soon mankind will be able to live out his days, free of sickness and death, the way our Loving God originally intended for man to live...'even life forever more' (Psalm 133:3) So, even though there are tears today, I hope that future days will help you to see that God promises a beautiful tomorrow. (Psalm 83:18; Titus 1:2) My deepest heartfelt sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Marilyn and family, I would like to extend my deepest condolences in the loss of your mother. I pray that God gives you all the strength to make it through this difficult time as I am aware that the kindest of words can never provide the healing touch that can only come from the Lord. My prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##D'Anyai Carpenter##imported-end##

“ Marily and family, there are not enough words to express my sadness for all of you. I am praying for all of you that God will give you strength at this time and afterwards. Remember that your mother left something of her in each of you and she will forever live on through you. It is refreshing to see a family as close nit as all of you are and you are very blessed for that. May god bless you and enrich your heart with his love.##imported-begin##Billie Kelley##imported-end##

“ Marilyn and family,

The passing of your mom reinforces in you the knowledge that what matters is not the time or manner of her passing, but the way she lived. What she gave to each of you will remain a treasure that each of you will store in your life.

I share sympathy with the family, and I know first hand that when someone close to us dies, there isn't a day that goes by without them in our thoughts. And know that the strength that you will receive from God and all of the memories shared with others will make it easier to continue on. Love you!##imported-begin##Charlene Gocher##imported-end##
