“ To Uncle Fred, Kelly and Ricky,

I can only imagine how tough this moment is for you. You all have truly been an example of strength for our family. This is a strength that can only be from Heaven above. Auntie is with the Lord now, and I have an excitement and joy about this even though I am sad I will never see her again on this earth. She has no more pain or suffering-Thank you Jesus!-and I know she is extremely proud of you as are all of your love ones. So let's treat this as a celebration! Continue to seek and trust Him during this time of uncertainty. He is faithful and true...praise His Holy Name!###imported-begin##Terry Primm###imported-end##

“ God knows the heart, and I am sure that we will take on more of Christ characteristics when we go to be with Him. Aunt Lene knows I love her and am proud of her for fighting as long as she did. But, I am not doing this to let her know how I feel because I feel life. I am doing this to let all of my family know that I love them with all of my heart. I am with you now and more than you know. I will see you soon. Love, Terry

“ To Uncle Fred, Ricky and Kelly:

May God be with you during this time to give you comfort and peace. The strength and guidance for the time ahead will come as Proverbs 3:6 says, "Lean not on your own understanding, trust in [God] and He will direct your path." I love you all (that's "y'all" in Texinese) :)

I'll miss Aunt Alene very much, too. She and I had become very good friends. There is a song lyric that articulates well my sentiments right now:

*"Friends are friends forever if the LORD is the Lord of them.
A Friend will not say never, for the welcome's without end...
Though it's hard to let you go into the Father's hands, we know, that a lifetime's not too long
to live as friends."*

“ *Sometimes it's hard to understand
And harder still to say
Thy will be done when sorrow comes
And sadness fills our day.
But faith was meant for times like these And if we take God's hand,
With loving wisdom He will help Our hearts to understand.

“ My condolence to you and your family in your time of sorrow. Aunt Alene was a woman of strength and character, she will truly be missed. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I do believe she is at rest with the Lord now. I pray that God continue to bless and strengthen you all as you continue to live your lives here on earth and know that through the love of Jesus we will all meet again in heaven.

Love always

“ With all our hearts, we send all our love, sorry, and joy to you on this day. This is a time to remember the good times, because to think of this wonderful lady I can only remember the good times. She was my rock, and now she is surly our guardian angle. She will always be in our hearts.##imported-begin##Deborah Otudor and Family##imported-end##
