“ To the Wilkes family, please accept my sincere condolence. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and shall come forth-they that have done good to a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to read of the loss of Mrs. Wilkes. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God Jehovah promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28-29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when ‘death and pain will be no more’. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Alleen was certainly privileged with the gift of longevity (Psalm 90:10). Even so, I know it breaks your hearts because death has separated you from your loved one. That is how our Loving God feels too! That's why at Isaiah 25:8 he promises to wipe out the tears from our eyes as he swallows up death forever! And he wants to see us with our loved ones again so he has promised that “...the hour is COMING when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out.” (John 5:28,29) Yes, we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again! May your hearts find comfort in what God will do shortly, for it will not fail to come true (Titus 1;2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Wilkes family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
