“ To my cousins! My deepest sympathies for your loss of Allie and my Aunt. I know that she is resting with Yeshua, The Christ and praising Him with her sister, my mother Wigee. Flora and I extend our prayers, condolences and ourselves. Know that you are family and I miss you all dearly. Even though I am currently here in Afghanistan, I thank God that the prayers I pray will comfort you all. May God richly bless you all and know that we are here for you.

“ Sis. Copprue(Minister Copprue) We have and will continue to keep you in our prayers. No matter what your trials are, or how big your mountain seems;

The Lord is there to see you through; He'll go to all extremes.

So if your cross seems to hard to bear, and you know not what to do;

The One who loves you most of all will be there to see you through.

“ To the Johnson Family...especially to her daughters and grandchildren, may I please offer my sincere condolences on the death of your mother and grandmother, Mrs. Allie Mae. Although I didn't know her personally, I can certainly relate to the 'mother/grandmother' relationship, for I, too, had a beautiful mother and grandmother and I was very close to them both. Death, at any age, at any time, is a true enemy of mankind because it separates us from those who are so special to us and leaves us devastated! God created man to live, not die, (Psalm 36:9) which is why our Loving Heavenly Father has already made provision to wipe out death forever (1Cor. 15:26). he also assures us that soon He will ..."wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more..." (Revelation 21:4). In the days and weeks ahead as you recall with fondness many precious memories of your loved one, rest assured that she is in God's memory too; and that soon, God will remember her and she will awaken to life again at His command (John 5:28,29, Job 14:14,15). This is God's promise to all mankind sleeping in death (Acts 24:15; John 11:11-14). It is these very Bible Truths that have comforted me over the years as we all await the fulfillment of His promises just ahead (Isaiah 55:11). Rest assured, take courage! The God of Truth will do all that He has promised for He cannot lie! (Titus 1:2). My Deepest Sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jonesj##imported-end##

“ Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye hands. Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presents sing. Know ye that the Lord he is GOD: it is he who have made us and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pastures. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise, be thankful on to him and bless his name. For the Lord is good: his mercy is everlasting, and his truth endureth to all generation. Amen.....PSALM 100

“ Gloria (2nd daughter)
Mother, you are a strong God fearing women, with a great work ethic, that loved God with all your heart, mind and soul. You will be greatly missed. I thank God for allowing you to be here for 81 years. Mother your legacy will live on in your children. Sherrie the oldest has the gift of wisdom and love for family. Oliver Jr. (deceased) had a wonderful personality and full of laughter. I am the daughter that shares your passion for advocacy and community involvement. Peggy, the baby girl is the caregiver. Mother you cared for dad and so many others. Peggy and her daughter Christina made sure that the last months of your life were spent in a loving and caring environment. Kimberly Palmer (granddaughter) has worked tirelessly to make sure your home going will be a tribute to the life you lived.
For we know if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens (2 Corinthians 5:1).##imported-begin##Gloria Johnson Copprue##imported-end##

“ Mother, words cannot express, the love, joy, and conversations over the years, we enjoyed together and with the Family. Rest in Peace. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the Victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Corinthians 15:54-57.##imported-begin##Sherrie A. Williams(Johnson)##imported-end##
