“ Phenecia, I am so sorry for your loss. I found it was not the words so much that comforted me initially when my father passed away, but more so the act of someone simply reaching out and trying to feel and touch and heal my pain. I hope you find the comfort you need at this difficult time. In faith and love, Danielle###imported-begin###Danielle Cantin###imported-end##

“ Phenecia (and family) I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your father. I know exactly how you feel. It will be a year in May since I lost my dear dad and I still miss him, think of him, and pray for him everyday. Time will help ease the pain but you will never forget your loving father. He will be with you everyday. You are all in my prayers.
