“ Hoping a little ray of sun comes thru the dark clouds your family has faced these past days. Friends & family may provide that strength as each ties to come to terms with loss. I will be at the Thurs. visitation.

“ It can be difficult to describe the feelings we experience when we lose someone we love so much. It's not selfish to say, I want you to stay. Strengthen one another, look at photos and videos, it will hurt at first but those memories will help you to heal. Hold on the treasured memories you stored in your heart. Prayer is real communication with our Grand Creator Jehovah. He knows the DNA to bring her back to life. Isaiah 41:10 & 13, John 5:28-29. Even Jesus said, "You will be with me in paradise". Luke 23:43.###imported-begin##Mrs. Malone###imported-end##

“ Dear Family: There are few things in life (if any) more painful to us than the loss of a family member, especially a beloved parent. The pain can be almost unbearable, striking the core of our very being, and we wonder how we can move on without them in our lives. It is at times like this when we need comfort and support from our family, our friends and others like me who, although not knowing you personally, still care. But most importantly, we need assurance, comfort and hope from our Grand Creator that will give us the strength and the courage to move on with our lives confident of better days ahead. Jehovah God assures us of those better days ahead for he promises soon to ‘swallow up death forever’ (Isaiah 25:8) to resurrect our loved ones who have died (John 5:28, 29) and to “wipe out every tear from our eyes” because “...mourning, nor outcry, nor pain will be anymore”. Jehovah promises that He’s making “all things new” and not to worry because “these words are faithful and true’. (Revelation 21:4, 5). What a beautiful hope and future Jehovah has placed before us and we are assured again at Titus 1:2 that all he has promised will come true. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
