“ Please accept my condolences. I can't imagine the sadness you must be feeling. May the sorrow you feel in your heart lighten by the love that surrounds you. May the comfort that the Bible provides be of solace to you during this difficult period. Jesus Christ promised at John 5: 28, 29 "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment". We have the hope of seeing our loved ones again! May these words give you courage to face coming days. My deepest sympathies.###imported-begin##V Williams###imported-end##

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##
