“ To the McMillian Family, I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and strength through God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces and death will be no more. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ May the God of all comfort give you the strength you need to endure the days ahead. Death was not what our Grand Creator intended for us - just to live a few years and die. HE created perfect humans and put them in a beautiful paradise. God's purpose will come to fruition. I pray that you will be strengthen, with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. Throw your burden upon HIM, he cares for you. Even Jesus reassures us, Luke 23:43 - "You will be with me in paradise". There were many Jesus resurrected, while alive on earth. That was a fore gleam of the grand resurrection, soon to be. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ It was with heartfelt sadness when I learned of Sam's passing. He and I work at DDOT and also bowl together along with a host of other friends. Sam was a pleasant and warm friend.I know that the McMillan family are grateful for the many happy years that you shared with him. So please accept our deepest sympathy in your time of great sorrow. My wife and I send you our love to give you the strength to bear your sorrow.

Sincerely.

“ It is always sad to hear of someone passing but we all know Sam is not suffering anymore. His dad and my grandmere were married and raised my SON. Any time I was around Sam and Claudette you could feel the love. I thank God for Sam and Claudette for visiting my grandmother even after GG left this world. I saw a light in him..I never heard him speak above a whisper and he found the good in people. I just want to thank God for Sam and Claudette. To the children and Claudette: May God continue to comfort you in the days to come..even when the people stop coming by..when the phone stops ringing...when the tears still fall down your face...when no one is around...KNOW that God is still there whenever you need him.##imported-begin##Denise Russell##imported-end##

“ To Claudette And Family
With sincere sympathy and understanding, just a note to tell you that you are being thought of during your time of loss.

THE BROKEN CHAIN

We little knew that morning that God was going to call Samuel's name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, the Chain will link again.##imported-begin##Dewayne & Mary Boykin##imported-end##

“ I am Sam's youngest son. I will miss the laughter and the stories he would tell. He could tell a story with the best of them. He was very wise and kind. Cant believe he is gone, but God has him now. My Faith in God will get me through. Well done thy good and faithful servant. R.I.P. Dad. I love you.##imported-begin##Laurence Donald Robinson##imported-end##

“ I am Sam McMillan 3rd oldest child. I am so thankful to have a father like him. I don't know where to start but I will tell you I always wanted to be like my dad. somethings I followed in his footsteps and did. My dad was a hard worker. at one time he told me he worked three jobs to make ends meat. he could sing, he loved playing the organ, his bass guitar, bowling, watching Sanford and Son, basketball, and he loved to take pictures and video record events. my dad was so wise and had so much god given wisdom. he loved to help others in what every situation they may be in. My dad loved to drive. he was a city bus driver in Detroit, he was a school bus driver, Sanitation man and driver, he drove a Salvation Army truck when I was a little boy he would let me go on his route with him to pick up stuff. when I was in high school I would do my homework on the bus and meet him sometimes on his bus routes. when I joined the Army I would write him and he would allways write me back. I could write a book about my dad and tell the world how he allways beleieved that a man is suppose to be and do the things that a man should do. and he was a man of his word. so I just want to tell every one that I will miss my dad and I love him and one day I will see him again.##imported-begin##Anthony Floyd Mc Millan##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere sympathy to you Claudette and the rest of the family. Sam was an excellent bowler and genuine GOOD person. All of bowling trips that Sam attended were always filled with lots of jokes, stories, and just pure fun. Sam knew how to keep the bus and the room alive. I'm truly going to miss him. I continue to pray for you, Claudette and the McMillan family.##imported-begin##Willa "WAR" Ray##imported-end##

“ Dearest Dad, I will miss you more than words could ever begin to express. You have been the "rock" of our family. Thank you for being my biggest fan and for encouraging me and supporting me and for being a shoulder to cry on when the pressures of life had me down for the count. I could "always" count on you to offer encouraging words or a funny joke to make me feel better and before long, I'd be laughing and smiling again. Thank you Dad for exposing me to The Church of God in the 70's when you I was a young teenager. I draw strength from the biblical teachings that I learned and I thank you for that. Thank you for being a father to my child, your Granddaughter Ongeli. She loved you soooooo much Dad. She tatoed your nick-name on her wrist. She is devastated that you are gone but I thank God that my child was blessed to know her "Papa Bear" for 19 wonderful years. During those 19 years you had a huge impact on her life Dad. You counseled her, gave her advise, chastised her and taught her life lessons that she will never forget. You were the father, the man in her life, that she never had growing up and I thank you Dad. My heart is broken Dad that I will never be able to pick up the phone and hear your voice again. I loved you Dad with all my heart. Although I am sad and broken up inside that you are gone, I take comfort in knowing that you are no longer suffering and that you prayed with the pastor and ministers a few months ago in October 2011 and you asked God to hear your prayer and he did. I am so thankful to God that I was born of Everlillie McMillan and Samuel McMillan. I will miss you Dad. Tell Granddaddy and Grandmere and all the others in heaven that we miss them too. I look forward to seeing you again Dad. We've spent a wonderful lifetime together, 50 years. I've been so blessed. You will live on in my heart forever Dad. I love you. “ My heart and deepest condolence goes out to the McMillian family. The Bible says of the Almighty: "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be anymore pain; for the former things are passed away."-Rev.21:4. May you find comfort through the Word of God.##imported-begin##Mrs. C##imported-end##

“ Sam was a consummate, deeply loving, adoring husband and soul-mate to my sister, Clsudette (Payne) Macmillan, for 18 1/2 years.

It was a joy to have known him. He had a great and most engaging sense of humor and irony. Sam brought immense joy and fun to our family gatherings.

He will be deeply missed by the entire Payne-McLamore-Harris-Saunders-Rivers family.

Sam endured many months of painful illness.

Sam is at Rest now.

He will be lovingly remembered by this branch of his extended family.

“ Dear Family: As we await the time when Christ Jesus will awaken all who have fallen asleep in death, (John 5:28,29) please accept my sincere condolences during this time of bereavement for your precious loved one, Samuel. I pray our Grand Creator and God of all Comfort, will strengthen you to endure the tears that now cloud your eyes and the pain that now fills your heart. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4; 4:7) Hopefully, being reminded that God is eager to heal your broken hearts and bind up your painful spots (Psalm 147:3) will bring you assurance of better times ahead where mankind will be able to live out the length of his days the way God originally intended...'even life forever more'. (Revelation 21:4;Psalm 37:29;Psalm 133:3) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ We would like to extend to the entire McMillian family its heartfelt sympathy on the death of Samuel who's been a member of the Pilgrim Village Community and the Association for many years. He was indeed a community supporter. Please accept the condolences of everyone associated both past and present.

We are praying that in these times that our Lord and Savior will wrap his arms around each of you and give you the strength.

In the name of Jesus!
