“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Samuel and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).

Respectfully,

T. Cherry

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. For more information on the scriptural hope, please visit: www.watchtower.org.

“ Dear Family: For the thousands of years that mankind has known about and experienced death, it has never become easier for him to bear it. Death is truly mankind's worst enemy because it separates us from those we love. (1 Corinthians 15:26) And now our Loving God has purposed that soon death will be done away with (Isaiah 25:8) It will be no more! (Revelation 21:4) Hard to imagine though it might be, nonetheless, God has promised and we know He cannot lie (Titus 1:2). May your hearts take comfort and hope in God's word as we all await the time when soon “all those in the memorial tombs (graves), including your loved one, Mr. Samuel, will hear his voice and come out”, to live out their lives the way God originally intended...”even life forevermore” (John 5:28,29; Psalm 133:3) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to The Bassett Family.

Sam was one of the kindest and most giving persons I have ever known. Always there with a helping hand and good advice. He will be missed very much and forever in our hearts. He left us much too soon, but God has a bigger plan for him.

Soon the pain of his passing will be replaced by the remembered joy of just knowing him!

With much love and sympathy - Mary Lynn##imported-begin##Mary Lynn Crenshaw##imported-end##
