“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ Dear Andrews family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Sam Willie. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able-body man dies, can he live again..." This hope is held out to all mankind, including Mr. Sam Willie. May the God of all tender mercy be a source of comfort during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Thinking of you in these difficult times. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. When it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk with, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to hear. That pain is not easily erased by being told that your loved one is up in heaven. The Bible, however, holds out a different hope. Jesus Christ promised: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment”. John 5:28, 29. Our loving Heavenly Father and his son Jesus Christ offer both comfort and hope during this difficult time. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1: 3, 4.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ Dear family of Mildred Anthony, I want to express my sincerest condolences for your precious loss. It is not easy to cope with the death of a loved one and it can be quite a challenge moving on without them in our lives. Although it may be hard to think about such a thing, please know that our loving heavenly Father is willing and able to comfort you during this sad chapter in your lives (Philippians 4:6,7).##imported-begin##Jackie##imported-end##

“ Dear family of Sam Willie Andrews, please accept my sincere condolences and sympathies. Take comfort in the fond memories of your loved one who has fallen asleep in death and know that one day by means of a resurrection we will be able to hold our dear ones close to us once more (Isaiah 26:19)##imported-begin##Jackie##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Andrews family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
