“ *To Amy's husband, daughter and loved ones - I send a prayer for you in the difficult time of loss. Although this grief seems overwhelming now, the day is coming when you will see Amy again and you will forget this pain of loss that you are experiencing now. Our heavenly father has promised a day when all people will experience "the exquisite delight in the abundance of peace" (Psalms 37:10,11,29) and not just for a little while but forever. May you be comforted with the thought of this future time when you and Amy will never have to part. Until then, know that God is with you to comfort you. “ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the entire Hunter family. My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. Please take comfort in the love and support from friends and family. Never miss an opportunity to tell your loved ones what they truly mean to you. May you find peace and comfort needed in the days ahead. Reflect on the happier memories you shared with Amy. Look at photos and videos; it might be painful at first. But, those memories will help you to heal. "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". Psalms 55:22 Prayer to God is not an emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with the "God of all comfort", who will comfort us in all our tribulation". 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15. I hope the beautiful memories of Amy's life fill you with joy.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
