“ Mrs. Anjail Sameerah Reynolds

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ To the Reynolds Family: May I first offer my sincere condolences on the death of your daughter and sister...Anjail. The Bible teaches us that in this life, this system of things, that sometimes we will experience unexpected and sometimes devastating things. It says, in part, at Ecclesiastes 9:11 that.. 'time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all'. The Bible book of James, chapter 4, verse 17 teaches us (in part)... 'you do not know what your life will be tomorrow.' But, death, however it comes, at any time or any age is an enemy of mankind because it robs us of those whom we love so dearly. Thankfully, our Loving Creator has promised to destroy death forever! (1Cor.15:26). Jehovah is the Source of Life..not death! (Psalm 36:9) Life as it is now...today... is not what He intended. Everything beautiful comes from Him (James 1:17) Death is not beautiful and therefore does not originate with God.(Hebrews 2:14) Our Loving God has already made provisions to correct this issue and promises a resurrection for all those who have died (Acts 24:15). And, he promises also that soon "He will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death (no matter the cause) will be nor more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore."(Revelation 21:4) Yes,those promises are yet to be fulfilled, but it won't be long now. He yearns to restore life to all who have died, including Anjail (Job 14:14,15). May His Words of Truth bring you comfort as you look to the future knowing that He will do all that He has promised because he cares so dearly for you (1Peter 5:7) and because he does not lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of the loss of Anjail. The bible promises everlasting life. Jehovah always tells the truth, he does not lie. Anjail can rest now. We must continue to struggle to survive this wicked world, with the crime, violence, war, sickness and death. God did not intend for us to live this way. Psalms 116:15 Precious in the eyes of Jehovah, is the death of his loyal ones. The bible promises one day soon he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5) He promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until Jehovah fulfills his promises, may you find comfort in his words.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##
