“ Grandmother Holmes,

Grandmother of my co-worker Waiinine Simmons, it has been a pleasure knowing you and talking to you about cooking. Thank you for trying to teach me to cook home made rolls. May your sweet soul rest eternally. God Bless all of your family.

Sincerely,

“ To Anna's Family:

I grew up with Anna on Colfax St. in Detroit. Our families were close friends. I knew her as Anna Custard.

My deepest sympathy to you. My brother, Henry James, sends his condolences. My sister, Myrtle Jean Jones Allen, will bring our personal wishes to you today. Our childhood days on Colfax can never be forgotten.##imported-begin##Evelyn James Browne##imported-end##

“ To the family, may it comfort you to know I have you in my prayers. Remember that "earth has no sorrow that heaven can't heal". Lean on the Lord and He will provide and carry you through the days ahead.##imported-begin##Renee Thornton-Beatty (DTE-MichCon Gas Co)##imported-end##

“ To my beloved stepmother, and friend, your support, wisdom, and counsel will be greatly missed. I will appreciate and cherish the relationship that we were blessed with forever. InshaAllah, you will have the peace and comfort in the Hereafter that you deserved this life.##imported-begin##LaTiece Howard ##imported-end##

“ During two periods in my life, this beautiful woman crossed my path.

The first time was at the Detroit Department of Transportation, where Anna was the beloved nurse on duty for the employees.

Later, we were together in fellowship several times at the Ushers' Black Heritage Banquet, Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church; where Anna's sister and nephew worship and serve on the Usher Ministry.

I, among many others, will miss her pleasant spirit.

“ Anna,

His eye is one the sparrow, and He watches over you. You will be greatly missed by all you have touched during your earthly experience. Peace be with you.

Love,
