“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ 100 years old - I'm sure conversations about the "old days", and Mrs. Merriweather's experiences in life, must have been a joy to listen to. Even though I did not know her personally, I have always had a special fondness for the elderly. There life experiences helped me to be a better person, in caring for the needs of others, especially the elderly. No matter what age a person dies, it still breaks your heart. According to Psalms 90:10, she truly had "special mightiness" to live as long as she did. Yet, 100 years is not enough, when our heavenly Father, Jehovah God purposed that we live forever in paradise on earth. Mrs. Merriweather can rest now. (Romans 5:12-21). By means of God's underserved kindness, He has given us the gift of Jesus, who sacrificed his perfect life, so we can have, that "promised" life. God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34; 18) I pray that you will be strengthen, with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. It's important to learn what God requires so we can enjoy life in paradise too. Draw comfort in the resurrection hope. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##
