“ I am so sorry to read of the loss of your dearest, Annie. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28-29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when ‘death and pain will be no more’. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Family: When a loved one dies, no matter how old or how young they may be it affects every fiber of our emotions, our very being. That's because losing a loved one to death brings us face-to-face with the realization that they are gone...all too soon... and we are helpless to do anything about it! (Psalm 49:7; 89:48). But there is One who is not 'helpless' in the face of death...Jehovah God, the very Source of life!(Psalm 36:9) And, he promises us in his Word, the Bible, that soon he will lovingly wipe the tears from our eyes because death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) Instead, there will be tears of joy as his Son, Jesus, proceeds to awaken our loved ones from the sleep of death (John 5:28, 29; 11: 11-14) What a wonderful time that will be when we are reunited with them and can look forward to living out our days, here on earth, as Jehovah God originally intended, in peace (Psalm 37:11,29) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:24) and yes, free of death! (Isaiah 25:8) My deepest sympathy to you. .###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###
