“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dearest, Barbara. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28,29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when 'death and pain will be no more'. (Revelation 21:4) Reflect on the happier memories you shared with Barbara. Look at photos and videos; it might be painful at first. But, those memories will help you to heal. "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". Psalms 55:22 May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this most difficult time you receive the comfort you need.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##

“ Deepest sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one. While few words can bring peace, perhaps the words expressed at Revelation 21:3,4 will provide you with both comfort and hope.##imported-begin##LaVerne##imported-end##

“ To the Hill family,

I am very sorry for the loss of your loved one. The Bible gives us a wonderful hope for our dead loved ones. Tha hope is to be reunited with them in the near future right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. Everyone will have perfect health, and they will never have to die again. Jesus Christ promised at John 5:21, 28,29, “Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” This scripture shows that the dead will live again on the earth.##imported-begin##Eunice Parks-Dombrowski##imported-end##
