“ Deepest sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one. While few words offer peace during such a difficult time, perhaps the thought expressed at Revelation 21:3,4 provide you with both comfort and hope.##imported-begin##Brenda##imported-end##

“ Barbara Jean Horton was my/our loving, and caring mother. She truly cannot be replaced, and will be missed deeply by us all forever! My mother was an outgoing, fun loving person. She loved us all individually, and as a group in her own special ways. The pain and sorrow I feel is like no other I have every experienced my whole life. I have a whole new respect for those who have lost their mother. The pain is deep, and indescribable. For those of you who have not experienced the loss of your mother, always treasure and respect her, and tell her you love her as many times as you can. Do all you can for her, and never lose any special, or quality time with her.

I/We thank you all for the wonderful outpouring of love, prayers, and many other means of concern afforded us at this most trying time in our lives. I/We ask that you continue to pray for, and communicate with us as we continue with the healing process.

A more personal "Thank You" will be bestowed upon each and every one of you at a later date. Again, we say, "Thank You!".##imported-begin##Tyra S. Horton##imported-end##

From: Michelle McClain

Hello Cheryl:

I cannot begin to express how much my heart goes out to and your family over the loss of your Mom.

I pray that you all will be Blessed and that you will find peace in knowing how much your Mom was Loved and Appreciated.

When Antwann, Jr. was born, Mr. and Mrs. Horton were there for us 100% in every way they possibly could be from taking us back and forth to the Doctor when he was sick to helping me financially until I gained legal guardianship of him. They were very concerned and involved in helping us to get stable until Mr. Horton became ill and passed away.

I have never forgotten how kind they were to me and I am truly sorry for your family's loss. If there is ever anything I can do to be of help or assistance please don't hesitate to let me know.

Take Care and Be Continually Blessed.
