“ Dear fountain family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Bennie May. I am writing to you about the bibles wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The bible tells us of a time when our loved ones will not always fall asleep in death at (Job 14:14) it states :“If an an able body man dies, can he live again...” This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Ms. Bennie Mae. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.”

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Fountain family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ To the family of Bennie Mae Fountain,
I am so sorry for your loss. Would you like to see your dead loved one again? Thinking about reuniting with one who has passed may seem farfetched. However, the bible gives hope to those who have lost loved ones in death. At Revelation 21:4 it says “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” I hope this could provide a small measure of comfort to you. If you have any more questions, feel free to ask any one of Jehovah’s Witness. I will keep you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Brenda Jones##imported-end##
