“ To the Rosemond Family: I would like to extend my condolences to you on the death of your dear mother. Although I didn't know her personally, I can still truly relate because I lost my dear mother some years ago. Mothers are such special people and when they leave us, they leave a hole in our heart that only God can heal. Death is an enemy, it's tragic and painful because it separates us from those we love (1Corinthians 15:26) and because we are helpless in the face of it. (Psalm 89:48). However, there is One who is not helpless, Our Loving Heavenly Father, and He has promised to heal our hearts of this terrible hurt by means of a resurrection for our loved ones who have died (Acts 24:15). In the weeks and months ahead as you recall treasured memories of your mother, rest assured, she is in God's memory too, and one day soon, He will call her and she will answer at His command (John 5:28,29). Death will be destroyed forever and God "will wipe out every tear from our (your) eyes" (Revelation 21:4). I hope you find comfort in these Scriptural truths as I have over the years. Know that God truly cares for you (1Peter 5:7) and because He does, He will certainly do all that He has promised, because he cannot lie! (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
