“ To the family,

It is with heartfelt sadness that I send this condolence. You are definitely in my prayers, as I have felt like a family member to Betty, as I have known her seems like the majority of my life. Betty's untimely demise is just another reminder that tomorrow is not promised to any of us.. The Bible encourages us in that "Weeping endures for a night, but joy comes in the morning".. Lawson family, and friends, I pray that God continues to be with you during this night-time experience, and that He will soon grant you the peace that passes all understanding. Rest in eternal peace Betty.. We loved you, but God loves you more. We dont understand why things happen as they do, thus remember to love as instructed that when our time comes there will be no earthly regrets as to wether or not we told, or showed love.. Blessings to you today and always,

“ Sean you are like the brother I never had. I know this is truly a difficult time for you. I want you to know you will forever remain in my thoughts and prayers, and know in your heart that you were truly a blessing and a wonderful son to Mrs Lawson. God will give you the strength you need and comfort you along the way. I love you very much, you will always have a home away from home. Call me anytime.

P.s your well over due to critique my lastest boyfriend. :)

Love Ya!!

“ Sean, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. Please know that I am praying for you and your family. I pray that as you grieve that God gives you the strength and comfort that you need. Although we haven't seen or talked with each other in several years, I am grateful that I had the chance to meet and get to know you. “ To the Lawson Family: My prayers, thoughts and sympathy are with you all during the time of your loss. I met Betty about 15 years or so ago through my uncle, Eric Gardner as they were very close and personal friends and she became very close with our family and we loved her dearly. She was such a great person and will truly be missed.##imported-begin##Kimberley Williams##imported-end##

“ Miss Betty brought joy, laughter, a listening ear, a helping hand, and fried green tomatoes. She made us all feel loved and she will be treasured spiritually for ever. In her returning to the father we will try our hardest to remain happy that she is in Heaven. Words can not even begin to express the hurt that you must be going through Sean, but know you have all the family and support to help from the lives your mother has made an eternal impression and graceful touch on. Deepest Condolences To Sean, Family, & Friends.##imported-begin##Bascomb Family##imported-end##

“ Betty Lawson was a person that I met in my life but because of her thoughtful and kindness. She was my friend but more importantly, she was a human being. One with a beautiful heart, one that would make us feel great by just being alive, because her presence was a joy. I was shocked and saddened when I heard that my dearly beloved Betty had passed away. It was very painful to hear that you had been taken from us. I wished I could have seen her one more time. She was just the type of person that seemed like she'd be around forever. I miss you Betty. I still can't believe she passed away. As I write this it hurts to know that you are gone physically but I know she is here spiritually. Betty helped many people, as myself, survive tough times now. She was magnificent, she was a Princess, and she will be remembered as such. I'll always miss you Betty Lawson. She brought me joy and left this world without any warning. She were a brave lady and yet a flower. Another flower has been plucked on earth to bloom eternally in heaven. I Will deeply miss you so very much. I wish you a happy welcome in Heaven where you will be singing with the Lord and his angels in harmony... I envy those Angels! MY HEARTFELT CONDOLENCES, THOUGHTS, AND PRAYERS ARE WITH HER FAMILY AND FRIENDS. May God help to comfort those she left behind until the day they are joined once again. BETTY MAY GOD BLESS YOU WILL BE SORELY MISSED. ~Betty I Love you...Re' Nae ~##imported-begin##Re'Nae Bascomb##imported-end##

“ Sean, for almost 20 years you and Betty have been a wonderful part of my life. Who would have known all those years ago when we first met in college we would still be best friends today. You know what your mom meant to me. I am honored to have known her. I have so many wonderful memories of the times I spent with her on Greenview or the many conversations we had on the phone laughing & talking about you. Know that you will always have my ear to listen and my shoulder to cry on. Joel & I as well as my whole family are praying for you and will continue to uphold you in our thoughts & prayers. As my sister Lexy said, you will always have a home away from home with us.##imported-begin##Andrea Rainey##imported-end##

“ When I first moved on Greenview, Mrs. Betty was the first person to welcome me in the neighborhood. She was a very sweet person whom I've had the pleasure of meeting. In the summer she would see me working in my yard and give me suggestions on how to make my yard pretty as her's. She even gave my boys and I tomatos from her garden. Mrs. Betty you will be missed.##imported-begin##Angel Ferguson##imported-end##

“ Sean, I had the honor and pleasure of spending time with your mom. I love her dearly and miss her so much. As I write this, I can see the smile on her face when I came to see her the day after she arrived in town, her having lunch with us at work, her giving me the sweaters and cake, her calling me to tell me they have greens on sale at the store, me bringing Essence by to see her, and my last conversation with her on Thanksgiving morning. Please know that I will always be here for you and above all, God will never leave you nor forsake you. He will give you comfort and peace.
