“ *To the family of Betty Williams: May prayer, peace and His grace comfort and keep you during this dark hour. May the fond memories of such a wonderful person always be cherished, bringing a smile to all of our faces when we think of how much she made us laugh. May her legacy be cherished and instilled in her children for all of her hard work and effort in making a better life for 'her boys,' and all who knew and loved her.##imported-begin##Paula D. “ To the family of Betty Williams,

I will always remember Betty as a friendly, fun-loving and down-to-earth person. She always lifted my spirits whenever I was in her presence. I met Betty when she worked for Ameritech.

Keep God in your lives through this difficult time and always.

You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Frances Simmons##imported-end##

“ To the family of Betty Williams,
My prayers are that you cling to each other and remember the good times.

I knew and worked with Betty at Michigan Bell/Ameritech. She was a treasure and she helped support me doing our hard days at the company.

*My deepest sympathy,
