“ Dear Family: When someone you love dies, it is very difficult for anyone to find words to help comfort the grieving family, especially when that loved one is a parent. But, please know that I understand your pain for I, too, lost a loving mother some years ago. And, now, although I didn't know your loved one, Betty, personally, still I would like to extend my sincere condolences to you. Death is not something our Loving Creator ever desired that we experience. Death is our enemy because it separates us from those we love. But our Loving God has promised to do away with death forever! (1 Corinthians 15:26) He also promises that our loved ones who have died will be restored to us by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29) We will never be separated from them again (Revelation 21:4,5). Until that time arrives, cherish the memories of your dear mother, and the precious moments you spent in her presence. Meditate on the many valuable things she taught you and apply them in your lives. Take comfort in Jehovah God's sure promise that she will live again in a New World made perfect by him (Psalm 37:10,11,29). Rest assured He will do ALL that he has promised for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
