“ Beverly Dixon My dear friend. this tribute wall is all I had the opportunity to give. It took me all these years just to have the opportunity to say I love I wanted to be there to the end this earthly part of our friendship. One last hug, laugh..just wanted to hold your hand and..... i;m still your girl...I'll never forget you.

“ To the family of Beverly F. Dixon. The journey is long but we can travel together bound by the love of this special person that served as mother. Be encouraged that the heart is a common place to store the love.

Precious memories and God be with you always.##imported-begin##Parnell & Wilma Lovelace##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you, Shohonda during this time of grief and loss. Remember, God never puts on you no more than you can bear. Your mom has given you all the tool you need to be the best that you can be. Instead of standing with you, she is now overseeing you from above, laying in the cradle of his arms watching you with love.##imported-begin##Augustine Sharp##imported-end##

“ Just wanted to drop a line to offer my deepest sympathy to Maxine, Shohnda, Obray, Keisha, Armanda, Sundari and the entire family! If Bev ever forgot to tell you before the Lord called her home - her wish was for you all to stick together, be together and be a family. I am thankful to God for you all as my adopted family!! I may not be in Detroit next week to see them bury my friend, but I will be toasting her Home Going Celebration!! In the four hours I spent with her that Saturday, I told her everything that I wanted her to hear and though she couldn't say much back ... we could still make each other smile and laugh!! If there's ever anything ... you won't have to call because I will be calling you. Love you all! Many Blessings, Kia###imported-begin##Kia Crooms###imported-end##
