Love you Yolanda. - March 03, 2013 at 01:21 PM

“ Dear Family: There are few things in life (if any) more painful to us than the loss of a family member, especially a beloved mother. That pain can be almost unbearable, striking the core of our very being, and we wonder how we can move on without them in our lives. It is at times like this when we need comfort and support from our family, our friends and others like me who, although not knowing you personally, still care. I couldn't help but think about my own mother today when I read about things said about your mother from your lips and the lips of others who knew and loved her. My mother, too, had musical ability and loved the opera and classics. I miss singing alongside her at the piano. But, now I meditate on God's promises and the comfort, reassurance and hope that he has given me through the pages of his Word, the Bible, that gives me the strength and the courage to move on with my life confident of better days ahead. Jehovah God assures us of those better days ahead for he promises soon to 'swallow up death forever' (Isaiah 25:8) to resurrect our loved ones who are 'sleeping' in death (John 5:28, 29, 11:11-14) and to "wipe out every tear from our eyes" because "... mourning, nor outcry, nor pain will be anymore". Jehovah promises that He's making "all things new" and not to worry because his words are 'faithful and true'. (Revelation 21:4, 5). What a beautiful hope and future Jehovah has placed before us, and if we will put faith in his promises, then our sorrow will not be unrelenting for he desires that we see our loved ones again (Acts 24:15) and he assures us once more at Titus 1:2 that all he has promised will (soon) come true. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Diane: the first time I met your mom, she treated me like she had known me all of her life. She found positive aspects of who I am on the outside and made me feel so much better about myself. The last few years have not been easy for you or for her, but she always knew how loved she was. Hold on to those memories of your time together because the two of you had a special bond. Sending hugs to your children because they lost an important influence of who they became.##imported-begin##Patricia ##imported-end##

“ I owe all of my musical gifts, talents and abilities to my grandmother Brownie Mayberry. She not only had an innate gift to create music herself, she also was a lover beautiful meaningful music. She and I would discuss opera and classical music. Her favorite opera singer was Luciano Pavarotti. She also loved Andrea Bocelli. Some of my fondest memories of her were visiting her in her home in Detroit and listening to her play the piano. She also would love to listen to me sing and play the piano. She was my biggest fan!
Grandma, I hope you are playing and listening to music in your resting place. I love you.

Your first grandchild,

“ *Dear mom,
As I looked at your face the day you died I knew you were in peace and at home with your Heavenly Father. I pray that you knew how much you were loved and will be missed. The past 5 years were a very special time for me. You were content, rested and happy. May our lives be blessed and our hearts be at peace knowing that you were a loving and caring person that lived your life as an example for others. You knew how to seek your joy within. You would sing a song, write a poem or read your bible. Mom, you believed that if you held love in your heart, you would always know what to do or say. You were protected, guided and blessed by the Spirit and believed in more than what you could see. Mom, you also believed in grace, faith and mercy and displayed them in your life. Mom you are leaving a legacy for the world to see. Thank you for allowing me to be one of your daughters and thank you for your love. Let there be peace on earth and no sad tears. diane##imported-begin##diane davis##imported-end##*

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ To the Mayberry family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort through the Word of God.
