“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Aunt Carolyn,

Even though I have not see you since I was a teenager I will forever remember all of tbe good times we shared when you would come to Cincinnati and visit us. I love you and now you can rest in peace, safe in Gods arms. To be absent from the body is to be present with tbe Lord. You are physically gone but as long as we have memories of you, your spirit will live forever. To Brenda, Gwen and Stinky hang in there and know that this is a test of your faith in God. I Love You!##imported-begin##Princess Poyntz##imported-end##

“ Gwen & Family,
Please accept my heartfelt condolence on the loss of your mother. I cannot begin to imagine the depth of your pain. I pray you find comfort in the words of the Lord and may the peace which comes from the memories you and your mom shared comfort you now and in the days ahead. You know, when I think of Ms. Carolyn, I instantly remember the sincerity and realness in her voice when she would talk to us; as a child, a majority of my time was spent at your home, and she always made me feel at home. Please know I am here for you if you need me.....I love you ALL.##imported-begin##Kim Smith##imported-end##

“ To Gwen and your sisters and brothers. As I write to you, I see Carolyn's wide smile. Summers with Carolyn here in Atlanta are the memories I will treasure the most. She was a sweet spirit and I know she is with GOD resting in peace. I love you and pray as time passes, GOD will turn your tears to sweet memories that will put a smile on your face again. Love, cousin Kathy.##imported-begin##Kathy Nelloms-Grace##imported-end##

“ To Gwen & your sisters and brothers. My love and prayers are with you all during this time of grief. Your mother Carolyn, (my niece) was just like one of my own daughters and spending many summers in my home here in Atlanta. Having lost my own mother, I know it's very hard right now. Cry to relieve your pain and ask GOD to replace tears with sweet memories that will turn tears with smiles. And always trust GOD.##imported-begin##Eva Mitchell-Nelloms (Aunt Eva)##imported-end##

“ To my Family, Where do I begin, with saying that I love you all and I'm praying that god gives you all the strength to make it through what will be the most difficult task of your lives. I know you have the knowledge to trust in him with all thine heart. Remember that Carolyn is in a much better place and god never makes mistakes, she not alone but with so many others that have gone before us. Rely on the faith that has been instilled in us all .I know what you're going through, losing the single most important compass in your life. With a loss such as this comes many layers of heartache, Please know that my heart is open to giving you anything you'll need in your time of grief. We all loved Carolyn very much, I'm so glad I was able to speak with her just a week ago. My deepest sympathy and prayer for all of you. Much love.

“ Dear Family: It is not easy to cope with the death of a loved one and can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives. Although it may be hard to contemplate or even envision at present, still, Our Loving God Jehovah has promised that soon he will 'wipe the tears from all faces and 'death will be no more (Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 25:8). Not only that, but he also promises to resurrect our loved ones who have died, including your loved one, Carolyn. What a joy we have of being able to see our loved ones again!(John 5:28,29). May this Scriptural Truth help to lessen the pain in your hearts today knowing Jehovah will do all that he has promised, for he cannot lie! (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
