"Those we love can never be more than a thought apart. For as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart"

We keep trying to think of the perfect words to say, the perfect thing to do to make this difficult time a little easier.

There are no perfect words, but there is the silent strength of our friendship and, we hope just knowing how much we care can help.

Our deepest sympathy in your loss!

“ To My Mrs. Cathy, My Suga, My Grandma. You were more than just the average Grandma. You encouraged us, fed us (very well), made sure we had all we needed and even some of the things we wanted. If we didn't want to live or be somewhere we didn't have to. You took me in and raised me as your own from a young age. The morals and values that you and granddad have instilled in me will be passed on. You are the source of who I am and I'll tell it to the world that without you I would have been lost. I am forever grateful and can't thank you enough. You knew how much I loved you from my actions as well as me telling you. So again I say, I love you! I will truly miss you! But because of the faith you instilled in me, this is not good-bye, just see you later. I LOVE YOU GRANDMA!##imported-begin##Granddaughter Tonya##imported-end##

“ "Eyes have not seen; ears have not heard - nor has it entered into the hearts of men as to just what the Lord has in store for us."

Often times, we think we are prepared for things when in all actuality we really aren't; like I am really experiencing the lost of MY grandmother? My favorite girl? Like this is too surreal. I can't believe that the time has now come to where I will not be celebrating another birthday with you; stopping by Windsor to play a slot or two just because thats what real grandmothers do...have fun!

My favorite girl is gone but not forgotten.....I wanna write more but Im crying. May God Bless and Keep You! Love you more than words can spell, type, or say!

“ MOTHER I AM VERY BROKEN AT YOUR PASSING. BUT I HAVE THE FAITH THAT YOU HAD AND THE HOPE OF BEING WITH THE FATHER WHICH IS IN HEAVEN. BECAUSE I KNOW THAT YOU WERE SAVED IN JESUS CHRIST I KNOW WITHOUT A DOUBT THAT YOU ARE SAFE IN HIS ARMS. OF COURSE I WILL BE SAD OF YOUR PASSING AND I AM, BUT I HAVE THE SAFE ASSURANCE THAT YOU ARE WITH THE LORD BECAUSE WE BELIEVE WHAT GOD'S WORD TELLS US THAT TO BE ABSENT FROM THE BODY IS TO BE PRESENT WITH THE LORD. GLORY TO HIS NAME. HALLELUJAH JESUS. THANK YOU GOD FOR MY MOTHER. I AM SO VERY GRATEFUL FOR THE TIME WE SPENT TOGETHER LAST SUMMER. WHAT A WONDERFUL TIME WE HAD. IT SEEMS NOW THAT YOU WERE SAYING GOOD-BYE THEN. I WILL SEE YOU AGAIN IN OUR GLORIED BODIES. THANK-YOU JESUS FOR YOUR SHED BLOOD SO THAT WE MAY HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO BE WITH THE FATHER IN HEAVEN. THANK-YOU JESUS HALLELUJAH JESUS, THANK-YOU. MOTHER NO MORE PAIN, NO MORE SORROW. GO ON AND WALK THE STREETS OF GOLD, SAFE IN HIS ARMS. “ So often things of the past can hold us back. Often the issues that haven't been dealt with can be a stumbling block and a hindrance to what God can do in us now. If only we can see beyond the here and now. If only we could see what God can do in and through us, we would desire to press on through.

As Paul says here, he hasn't already attained this, but he presses on – forgetting what lies behind and strains forward to what lies ahead. We need to have a more 'eternal' way of thinking. We know that this world is not our home. We can't even take our human body with us when we die. Everything will be changed. Everything will be new. Our homeland is in heaven with Jesus. Our home here on earth is only a temporary residence. If we could truly grasp this – we would realize the unimportance of so much in our day-to-day life. This can be a hard concept – because none of us can really understand what heaven would be like. None of us have been there. We haven't seen it; touched it; smelt it; experienced it in any way. We may get small glimpses now and then – but that is nothing in comparison to what it would be like. If we could just see what has eternal value in what we do and say, it can be transforming. Knowing this can help us to 'press on' with God. To 'press on' to receive the breakthrough we so desire. To 'press on' to be more Christ-like. To 'press on' despite the odds stacked up against us. For nothing else the world has to offer is as important as pressing on in God

Do not [earnestly] remember the former things; neither consider the things of old. Behold, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs forth; do you not perceive and know it and will you not give heed to it? I will even make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert...Isaiah 43v18-19
