“ *Whenever you lose a loved one it seems that a certain piece of you is missing. And by that being a mother one who gave you life raised you and did all the things a mother can do and more you may feel empty but as long as you say her name you give her life as long as you have those memorable moments you give her life be strong and God will take care of the entire family, our family will pray for your family.##imported-begin##Bruce E.
