“ Dear Jones family, please accept my sympathy over the death of your dear loved one Ms. Charlene. I am writing to you about the bible's marvelous hope of a future resurrection. The bible tells us that soon at (1Corinthians 15:26) that death, the last "enemy" will soon be destroyed by God. May you find comfort in this thought.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Jones family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ John 11:35 This verse occurs in John's narrative of the death of Lazarus, a follower of Jesus. Lazarus' sisters Mary and Martha sent word to Jesus of their brother's illness and impending death, but Jesus arrived four days after Lazarus died. Jesus, after talking to the grieving sisters and seeing Lazarus' friends weeping, was deeply troubled and moved. After asking where Lazarus had been laid, and being invited to come see, Jesus wept. He then came to the tomb and told the people to remove the stone covering the tomb, prayed aloud to his Father, and ordered Lazarus to come out, resurrecting him before the mourners, and so it is that we all must die but will be resurrected before the Father, for our just reward.##imported-begin##Jimmie Lavender##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to read of the loss of Charlene. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28-29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when 'death and pain will be no more'. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead. Isaiah 41:10 & 13.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It is not easy to cope with the death of a loved one and can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives. Although it may be hard to contemplate or even envision at present, still, Our Loving God has promised that soon he will 'wipe the tears from all faces and 'death will be no more (Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 25:8). Not only that, but he also promises to resurrect our loved ones who have died, including your loved one, Charlene. (John 5:28,29). May this Scriptural thought help to lessen the pain in your hearts knowing our Father will do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
