“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincerest condolences for the loss of your loved one. Life will be quite a challenge without them in our lives and adjustments may be difficult at times. May the comfort found in the scriptures help you through this stressful time. "Show me favor, o God, show me favor, for in you my soul has taken refuge, and in the shadow of your wings I take refuge until the adversities pass over." “ Dear family of Mrs. Charlotte Jacqueline Bridgewater, please accept my sincere condolences and sympathies. As much as I want so say I understand what you are going through, I honestly will never fully comprehend the deep sorrow that the individual family members will experience going through the grieving process. Each death of a family member is minutely unique, but the common thread that mends us all together is deep emotional pain and mixed feelings we experience when someone we love dies. Please be assured that God is a refuge to those needing and desiring His comfort and direction. I pray that you all have peace and endurance in the coming days ahead. (Psalms 46:1; Philippians 4:6,7).###imported-begin##Jackie###imported-end##
