“ I'M just writing to give you some encouraging word from the bible. John5:28,29says Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life. What a wonderful time it will be to see this future prophecy come true.##imported-begin##Kim Marshall##imported-end##

“ Dear Family:

Please accept my sincerest thoughts of care, concern, and sympathy. Often we take our family for granted and then feel regret and remorse when it is too late to share our feelings with them. I know I have been guilty of that. One thing that helps me through the pain of the loss is focusing on the scriptures and the encouragement given by God there which is timeless. Unfortunately, a lot of people dont know that the Bible holds out a hope for us that we will be able to see our loved ones again. (1 Thess. 4:13) This hope always help take the sting out of me when I lose someone. If you would like more information, please feel free to contact me.##imported-begin##Kimya Cole##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Family, What a joy and privilege it must have been to have been to have Mrs.Browner with you. What a delight it must have been to listen to her when she spoke of her life's experiences! Truly blessed with a 'special might ness' from God (Psalm 90:10) I know I can truly relate because I had a grandmother that lived to be nearly 100 years old and I simply loved sitting at her feet and listening to the wisdom that came from her heart. Please accept my deepest sympathy and condolence on your loss, but know too that God is mindful of Mrs.Browner and he cares deeply for you too. (1Peter 5:7) Jehovah God has promised a resurrection for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29) and also that death, itself, will be destroyed (1Corinthians 15:26). May you treasure the memories of Mrs.Browner and remember the promises of God, for they will surely come to pass (Titus 1:2).##imported-begin##Geneva McClendon##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.###imported-begin##Cynthia Mills###imported-end##
