“ *To the family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Did you know the bible gives the hope of death not occurring on this earth anymore? At Revelation 21:4 it says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” If you would like to know more about this hope, talk to any Jehovah’s Witness that you reach. I will keep you in my prayers###imported-begin##Brenda Jones###imported-end##*

“ Dear Rutledge family, please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Cheryl. I am writing to share with you the wonderful hope that the bible holds out for as future resurrection. The bible tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that death, the last enemy will be done away with by God. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.###imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell###imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Rutledge family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I remember when I first met Cheryl, she was so nice and always had a smile on her face. She was like a mother to me. Even though I didn't see her as much as I should have, everytime was just like it was yesterday. Her big hugs always made me feel loved. GOD really have an Angel and I know she's smiling right now. I will miss you, but never will I forget you Cheryl. Love you.... Til we meet again.##imported-begin##Bernadette Goldsmith##imported-end##
