“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....."
May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he "cannot lie."

“ May the hope at 1 Corinthians 1:3 bring the Norris family much comfort during this time. Jehovah God is the God of all comfort and he sees the difficulties and hard times we go through. He will help your family in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I miss my Auntie. Words can not express how I will miss those late night phone calls or early morning phone calls because she forgets the time difference between Detroit & California. I will miss her Sugar Boo, which she is the only one allowed to use that name. She never forgot my birthday and as the 19th passed, I didn't hear her birthday song, it touched my heart. My dad is there to represent us, RIP Auntie, Love ya Kenya.##imported-begin##Kenya##imported-end##

“ To the Norris family:
I know it has been a long time since I've been in touch, but Claretta was one of my favorites. She was a true spitfire. I loved her dearly. I continue to pray for you all during this most difficult occasion. She will always be here with you in your heart, your thoughts and your memories. God Bless you all. ---Gwen Nuckols##imported-begin##Gwen Nuckols##imported-end##

“ My heart is sadden now that you are gone, im thankful to God that u will no longer moan.im glad we got the chance to talk about a lot and pray about even more. I wil miss you not only because u are my aunt you are my friend. In my crazy days you looked out for me no matter if i was wrong or not, yea it always cost me 30-40% but it was worth every dime i spent. Dont forget u said when u see my dad u would tell him how God has changed my life. And i wont forget u said u were proud of me for making that sacrifice.I LOVE YOU.
