“ I send sympathy to Mrs. Adams' loved ones at this time of loss. She lived a long life and it is good to know that she will never have to suffer or experience old age and death again. According to God's wonderful purposes, she now has the prospect for eternal life under his Kingdom. (Matthew 6:9)

Until we meet again we must throw all our burdens upon our Heavenly Father Jehovah, and he will give us the "peace of God that excels all thought" (Philipians 4:6,7)##imported-begin##Jeanne G##imported-end##

“ 100 years old - I'm sure conversations about the "old days", and Mr. Adams experiences in life, must have been a joy to listen to. Even though I did not know him personally, I have always had a special fondness for the elderly. There life experiences helped me to be a better person, in caring for the needs of others, especially the elderly. No matter what age a person dies, it still breaks your heart. According to Psalms 90:10, Mr. Adams truly had "special mightiness" to live as long as he did. Yet, 100 years is not enough, when our heavenly Father, Jehovah God purposed that we live forever in paradise on earth. Mr. Adams can rest now from death inherited from Adam & Eve, where death ruled as king. (Romans 5:12-21). By means of God's underserved kindness, He has given us the gift of Jesus, who sacrificed his perfect life, so we can have, that "promised" life. God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34; 18) I pray that you will be strengthen, with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. It's important to learn what God requires so we can enjoy life in paradise too. Draw comfort in the resurrection hope. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##
