“ To the Daniels Family: Please accept my condolences on the death of your loved one, Mrs. Cubie. Although I didn't know her personally, all of us have lost loved ones to the enemy, death. But, our Loving Heavenly Father has promised us that (soon) he is going to destroy death forever! (1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8). He assures us that He will wipe out every tear from our eyes and that, one day soon, death will be no more (Revelation 21:4). And, out of his great love for mankind, he has so lovingly promised a resurrection of our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29, John 6:40). No, they will not be forsaken. May God's promises bring you comfort. May they ease your mind and calm your hearts as you await the fulfillment of his promises. He will not fail you (or the rest of us) It will all come true (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Cubie was a wonderful neighbor and friend and she will be deeply missed. Ms. Cubie looked out for me and I tried my best to do the same. There are really no words that can be expressed to the family to let them know we understand your pain and feel your loss. Just know that you will be in my prayers and I know that Ms. Cubie is at peace. God Bless!##imported-begin##Janeane Cato##imported-end##
