“ I met Dana during my brief employment with the American Red Cross, Dana was a true angel. She always spoke of the love for her dear son and I will always remember her smile when she spoke of him so proudly. Please accept my condolences on her loss. She will be dearly missed.##imported-begin##Vanessa Bell##imported-end##

“ Ms. Graham and Lori,

I was truly blessed to have Dana as a friend. As I stated at her service she taught me how to pray and the importance of reading God's word daily.

She was one of the most spiritual individuals I had surrounded my life with. I will miss her laughter and her encouraging words but is comforted in knowing she truly is with the Most High.

My love and prayers go out to you and your family. Dana loved you all so much and I know she would want you to be rejoicing.##imported-begin##Debra Butler##imported-end##

“ To Dana's Family: I was shocked upon my return to work to read of Dana's passing. I'm still finding it hard to believe. I got to know her as we took afternoon walks near the job. She was truly a God loving person and it felt good being in her presence. May God Bless you all. ##imported-begin##Deborah Cockrell##imported-end##

“ Dana was a wonderful co-worker at the American Red Cross whose professionalism the Strategic Fundraising Department depended heavily upon. We all loved her dearly.

It is with great sadness that Dana left us all too soon. We can only rejoice in the time she spent with us.

“ I am truly sorry to hear of Dana's passing. I worked with Dana at the Red Cross. My fondest memories of her is when she became pregnant with John and watching her go through all of the processes of pregnancy and motherhood. O, how she adored her son so much. When it was my turn for motherhood, we just laugh and giggle about some of things that we both had experienced. I will always keep that special memory close to my heart. Dana, You will definitely be missed.

“ to the family of dana hunt, please accept my deepest sympathy for dana's passing. dana worked with me at the red cross, and i will miss her. although we didn't agree on everything, i enjoyed her spirit and sharp mind. dana kept me on my toes, and helped make my job much easier. she cared for those around her, and did things to make our work environment better for all those with whom she came into contact. her work in toastmaster's international was known and respected by all. those of us who had the privilege of knowing and working with dana are better off as a result. although this holiday season may be filled with sadness, i hope that 2008 brings only good memories of dana's life. steve cooper###imported-begin###steve cooper###imported-end###

“ I had the opportunity to work with Dana at the Red Cross. We attended a weekly bible studies class. During that time, I came to know Dana as a loving and caring wife and mother, a dedicated professional and a friend, but most of all I came to know Dana as someone who loved the Lord and believed in his Word. Though I was shocked and saddened to hear of her passing, I know that she is in a place of JOY and PEACE. John, please follow the path that your mother set for you, and you will see her smiling face again. But until that time comes, know that she is watching over you.###imported-begin###Brenda Turner###imported-end###

“ The Rose Beyond the Wall

*Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed
in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.*

*As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall
Through which there shone
a beam of light.*

*Onward it crept with added strength
With never a thought of fear or pride,
It followed the light through the crevice's length
And unfolded itself on the other side.*

*The light, the dew, the broadening view
Were found the same as they were before,
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.*

*Shall claim of death cause us to grieve
And make our courage faint and fall?
Nay! Let us faith and hope receive --
The rose still grows beyond the wall,*

*Scattering fragrance far and wide
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forevermore.*

*Ms. Graham, Lori & Family,
On behalf of the entire Williams family (your former neighbors), I send our heartfelt sympathy to each of you. I rejoice in the knowledge that Dana was a Christian. I don't minimize the pain that you are currently feeling, but if you believe in the comforting power of God, I assure you, in time, "...the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." “ To Dana's Family & Son:

Dana was such a caring and wonderful person, always going out of her way to help - no matter how big or small the request. The way she lived her life will continue to be an inspiration to me, personally. Everyone at American Red Cross will miss her smile.

May God continue to Bless you and your family and fill your hearts with happy memories during this saddest of times.##imported-begin##Mary M Johnson##imported-end##

“ No words can express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I worked with Dana last year when she was with the development dept. In fact, I saw her back in Sept. when she transferred to another unit. I remember seeing her read her bible as we took the shuttle bus from the train station into work. Know that she is now in peace with her heavenly Father in heaven. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Angeli Virata##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Graham, Laurie, Channel and Little John,
Your sorrow is in my heart. The comfort that I have is that I know that Dana is with the Lord. She loved the Lord. She knew Him as her comforter, provider, her help in time of need. But most of all she knew His as Abba Father. She learned to lean on Him and not her own understanding and she acknowledged Him and He directed her path. Dana knew she was blessed by the Lord and a blessing to others...I know that she blessed me more than she every knew.

You will maintain in my prayer as always...love you!

“ To the Family, as the Facilities Service Administrator for the American Redcross I had the opportunity to assist Dana in her request for conference services. She always greeted me with a smile and a kind word. Exemplifying Christ we connected instantly. I will miss her smile as she walked through the hallways entering the cafeteria here at 2025. My prayers are with you doing this period of sorrow.

Enclosing Jesus stated: "Weeping may endure for a night but JOY will come in the morning". She has fought a good fight, she has finished her course, and she has keep the faith now a CROWN OF LIFE is waiting for her.##imported-begin##Y'Vonne Blackshear##imported-end##
