“ To the McNally family,

I was so sorry to hear of Sis McNally's passing. She was a very big part of my life. I really love her excitement and joyful spirit. Spending time with her and Elder McNally has been so much fun in Perfected Praise. She encouraged me and others in so many ways. I will miss her smile but I know that her smile will forever be in my heart and that I will see her again.. Shine on Sis. McNally. Shine on. Thank You for your love.

God Bless Elder McNally

“ To the McNally Family. I'm so sorry to read about the loss of Debby. Your loss is shared by many who care. No matter what age a person dies it breaks our heart. Matthew 11:28-30, Jesus says, “Come to me all you who are loaded down . . . I will refresh you”. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 Jehovah is the God of all comfort, who will comfort us in all our tribulation. God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34; 18) I pray that you will be strengthen with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. Please throw your burden, upon him, because he cares for you. Draw comfort in the resurrection hope. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##

“ To David McNally and family. I am Royzell Flemmon, Debbie's Uncle from Birmingham, Al. As I remember her, I can think of only one poem that puts her into mind by Alfred, Lord Tennyson.

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.*

Wish you all well and I hope this words provide cheer and brighten your days as it has done my whole life. Love you Debbie - always in our hearts.

*-Uncle Royzell, Aunt Phyllis, Cousin Elethia and Emil

“ To The David McNally Family:

I am Debbie's youngest maternal aunt, in Birmingham Alabama. I was saddened to hear of the passing of our niece. Our prayers are with you at this very difficult time. As I sit and remember, I am reminded that there's never a problem too large or too small, just ask God in faith and He'll answer them all. Not always at once, so be patient and wait, for God never comes too soon or too late. So trust in His wisdom and believe in His Word, no prayer's go unanswered and no prayer's go unheard. Your faith will sustain you in days to come. You loved Debbie and she loved you and God loved her more. Smile, cheer up and Look to the hill from where all of your help comes from. Thank you for the life that you provided for her over the years, cherish the memories and let God take control now, for it is He that is in control.

*The other day Jesus and Debbie had a little talk and He held her hand and Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in Me will never die."
John 11:25-26*
