“ Nicole and McKenzie- Your mother will surely be missed by many people. I spoke with her many times after we both moved on to different departments, and she always spoke highly of the two of you and her grandson. Know that God will take good care of her and you. My thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Susan Lettner##imported-end##

“ To the family of Deborah Lyons:

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Deborah. Even though I did not know her personally, I'm sure she, like myself (being the same age), that she had qualities and set solid goals for the future. The bible is the only place we can find true comfort during this difficult time.

When we hear a eulogy, it should give us comfort. But it doesn't. Why? Even though we die, it is something unnatural. Because, in our DNA pattern, Jehovah put the desire to live and never die. . Ecclesiastes 3:11 "God has put eternity into man's mind" or "their heart." What REALLY gives us hope? Not words to stir our emotions, but the truth found in the bible, which gives us hope that we will see Deborah again. John 5:28-29 there IS going to be a resurrection of righteous and unrighteous.

Revelations 21:3-5. (My favorite scripture) Let me tell you why. "The tent of God (or God's protection) will be with mankind. He will wipe out every tear from your eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away." Does that include your tears, your mourning, or your pain. Yes it does. Why can we be confident that this will come true? Verse 5 says, "Look! I am making all things new." "these words are faithful and true."

Ecclesiastes 7:2 "Better is it to go to the house of mourning than to go to the banquet house. We all should take this to heart." After a funeral, many are rushing to get to the "banquet house" (or place where there will be food) This scripture is important, because when attending a funeral, it gives us an opportunity to reflect on our life course. We need to meditate on how we live our life now. Our everlasting life is in the hands of Jehovah God. We may die, but Jehovah by means of Jesus can restore us back to life.

1 Corinthians 15:26, talks about death being an enemy. We hate it. But it's there. Death "with be brought to nothing", says the bible.

I hope that the words from the bible can give you comfort and know that others are thinking of you.

“ Deborah I am going to miss you! Your comforting and encouraging words were a great blessing for me. My prayers go out to your family and I will pass along this that helped me during my dark days in that in I Cor 15: 52-58 that states that" In a moment, in a twinkling of an eye, the dead in Christ shall be raised first and the rest of us will be changed..." Its that blessed hope that keeps me going!##imported-begin##Joy West##imported-end##

“ *May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared comfort you now and in the days ahead.
Although no words can really help to ease the loss, just know that your family is very close in my every thought and prayer.
God Bless you all

“ Deborah I really miss you. You will always be close to my heart. You never had a mean word to say to anyone it was always positive. May God keep you in his care. The way you talk about your family it is like I've been knowing them since birth. Your son McKenzie is a nice young man, you raised him well. May GOD keep you and family in his care. Love always Valerie.##imported-begin##Valerie Smith##imported-end##
